Course Description: A survey of the field and problems of Ethnic Studies as an area of knowledge and investigation. The instruction is to be interdisciplinary in nature. Major considerations of the entire Ethnic Studies field will be defined and analyzed. Although the course is not prerequisite to any of the others, students are strongly urged to take it before attempting other Ethnic Studies courses. This course is designed as an analysis of the issues of race, gender, class, and culture.

Student Learning Objectives: By the end of the course, students should be able to:

- explain basic sociological principles, concepts and issues related to the study of social minority groups;
- gain intercultural competence through knowledge and understanding of diverse cultural groups in the U.S.;
- apply course material to contemporary events and trends in local, regional, national and global communities;
- Develop, refine, and reinforce critical thinking skills.
- Develop, refine, and reinforce independent research and study skills.
- Develop, refine, and reinforce the ability to discuss, debate, and explore complex, potentially controversial ideas in a communal context.
- Develop, refine, and reinforce the comprehension of the complexity of the issues of race, class, gender, and culture.

Toward the end of the semester, a multiple choice, anonymous, questionnaire will be distributed in class. All students in all SOCI 2319 courses will be asked to participate in the activity. This is a tool the Sociology Department will use to monitor progress on student learning objectives.

Skill Objectives:

- think critically about current events in an increasingly diverse U.S. society;
- reflect on and express your own culture, values, ideas and personal and social responsibilities as a member of our multicultural society;
- communicate intercultural competence, understanding, and interaction orally and in writing.

Required Text Race, Ethnicity, Gender, and Class (7th edition) by Joseph F. Healey

Attendance: SHSU policy is that attendance is mandatory. Attendance is recorded at the beginning of class. Students who arrive once class is underway, or leave early, will be counted absent unless the late arrival/early departure has been negotiated with the professor prior to the class meeting. If you arrive more than 5 minutes after the start of class, you will be counted absent. If you leave more than 5 minutes before the end of class, you will be counted absent. Documentation is required for an absence to be excused, to make up missed assignments, quizzes or exams.

Exams: there will be three equally weighted exams. These will consist of multiple-choice and true/false questions. On exam day, you must bring a scantron to take the test. Each exam will be worth 100 points (3 x 100 = 300). All exam grades will factor into your final grade.

The exams will cover the assigned chapters in the textbook AND the material discussed in class. Although much of the class lectures will refer to the text, new material will also be introduced. You are expected to read and study the textbook independently. Information discussed in class, as well as that contained in the assigned readings, even if they are not reviewed in class, may appear on exams.

Make-up exams will be given only if arranged with the professor PRIOR to the day of the scheduled exam to be missed and ONLY if the reason for the absence is deemed valid by the professor. Documentation for absences must be provided to make-up assignments, quizzes or exams.

In addition to the exams there will be a weekly assignment on the topics covered in class. Class assignments consist of a variety of quizzes, discussions, and responses to articles. Late assignments will not be accepted and they cannot be made up due to unexcused absences. These assignments should be critically thought out and analysis based responses. There will be approximately 10-15 weekly assignments which will be worth a total of 100 points. NO E-MAIL SUBMISSIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED. No ASSIGNMENT IS ACCEPTED WITHOUT AN EXCUSE APPROVED ACCORDING TO SHSU POLICY. HARD COPIES SUBMITTED IN CLASS IS THE ONLY METHOD I WILL ACCEPT.

In addition to the exams, there may be multiple opportunities to receive extra credit in the course. These points will count toward the final grade.

Final grades will be calculated by adding points earned from three administered exams, discussions, weekly reflections, and any extra credit points earned. The grades will be weighted as follows:

Exams (3): 100 points each=300

Assignments/Quizzes (15): 5 to 10 points each =100

Total: 400 points

The grade scale should go as follows:

A=360 points or higher

B=320-359

C = 280-319

D=240-279 F=239 or lower

If your final average is within two points of a higher letter grade and you have no more than two absences, your grade will be rounded up. If you do not meet both of these requirements, your grade will remain as is.

Academic Dishonesty: All students are expected to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of academic work will be subject to disciplinary action. The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work which is to be submitted, plagiarism, collusion and the abuse of resource materials. For a complete listing of the university policy, see: <http://www.shsu.edu/syllabus/>

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES POLICY:

It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that individuals otherwise qualified shall not be excluded, solely by reason of their disability, from participation in any academic program of the university. Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities that might affect their academic performance should register with the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities located in the Lee Drain Annex (telephone 936-294-3512, TDD 936-294-3786, and e-mail disability@shsu.edu). They should then make arrangements with their individual instructors so that appropriate strategies can be considered and helpful procedures can be developed to ensure that participation and achievement opportunities are not impaired.

SHSU adheres to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. If you have a disability that may affect adversely your work in this class, then I encourage you to register with the SHSU Services for Students with Disabilities and to talk with me about how I can best help you. All disclosures of disabilities will be kept strictly confidential. NOTE: No accommodation can be made until you register with the Services for Students with Disabilities. For a complete listing of the university policy, see:

<http://www.shsu.edu/dept/academic-affairs/documents/aps/students/811006.pdf>

Absences and Attendance Policy: Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. Section 51.911 (a) (2) defines a religious holy day as: “a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Section 11.20....” A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

University policy 861001 provides the procedures to be followed by the student and instructor. A student desiring to absent himself/herself from a scheduled class in order to observe (a) religious holy day(s) shall present to each instructor involved a written statement concerning the religious holy day(s). The instructor will complete a form notifying the student of a reasonable timeframe in which the missed assignments and/or examinations are to be completed. For a complete listing of the university policy, see:

Visitors in the Classroom: Only registered students may attend class. Exceptions can be made on a case-by-case basis by the professor. In all cases, visitors must not present a disruption to the class by their attendance. Students wishing to audit a class must apply to do so through the Registrar's Office. See Student Syllabus Guidelines

Instructor Evaluations: Student will be asked to complete a course/instructor evaluation form toward the end of the semester. This feedback is important. It is used by professors to improve their teaching. Please participate in the evaluation process.

Inotes, studying the text and class notes for the quizzes and exams. Once a week you will be required to provide a Weekly Reflection. You will also have some in-class exercises to help you understand the material.

Required Supplies: You must have access to Blackboard for this course. The syllabus, class notes, assignments and announcements will be posted on Blackboard. In addition, Exams might be administered online via Blackboard. You are expected to check Blackboard and your SHSU email address for course materials and announcements.

Classroom Rules of Conduct: The student shall abide by code of conduct as described in the University Code of Conduct <https://netreg.shsu.edu/mirror/codeofconduct.html>

Students are expected to assist in maintaining a classroom environment that is conducive to learning.

- 1) Students are to treat other students, guest speakers and faculty with respect.
- 2) Please do not talk while the professor, guest lecturer, or another classmate, is speaking or during films. Points will be deducted from your grade if the professor has to repeatedly remind you not to talk during class as this is disruptive and disrespectful.
- 3) Students are to turn off cell phones while in the classroom. Note: If your phone is visible during class you will be docked two points from your next exam. Points will be deducted each time your phone is visible in the classroom. This is to avoid the temptation to read or send text messages during class. Under no circumstances are cell phones or any electronic devices to be used or seen during times of examination.

- 4) I-Pods and MP3 players should be turned off and stowed during class.
- 5) Computers may be used to take notes only. You must sit in the first two rows of the classroom to use a computer.
- 6) Please no food, drink or tobacco products in the classroom.
- 7) Students may record lectures with the professor's approval provided they do not disturb other students in the process. See Student Syllabus Guidelines
