CJ Center – Classroom A201

Required TextbookRennison, C.M. 2018. Introduction to Criminal Justice. (2nd Edition). Sage Publications.Course Description

This course will provide a basic overview of crime and the criminal justice system in the United States. It will include discussions on criminal justice philosophy, policies, practices, and trends. In the end, it is hoped that students will have a better understanding of the essential components of the criminal justice system (citizens, law enforcement, courts, corrections), and the emerging topics and trends related to these.

Course Objectives

1. Define crime, deviance, and social control, and explore how these interact and relate.
2. Explore theories and methods that are used in criminal justice decision-making.
3. Analyze how criminal justice policies are created, implemented, and enforced.
4. Discuss and evaluate the history and evolution of the criminal justice system.
5. Evaluate current events and trends affecting the criminal justice system.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Course Grading

Possible Points (500):

1. Assignments/Group Assignments/Quizzes = 100 points
2. Exams = 400 points (Four exams to include the Final Exam - 100 points each)

Exams (including the final) may consist of short answer essay questions, true/false, and/or multiple-choice responses. Exams will usually include only the specific information found in the textbook reading assignments, but may include information from class assignments/activities.

Class Attendance

Students are expected to attend class as required by University policy. Review the University attendance policy at <http://www.shsu.edu/dept/academic-affairs/aps/aps-students.html>.

Make up Exams/ Illness

Make up exams will be given only if a student has [1] contacted the instructor prior to the exam; and [2] has a University recognized absence which includes illness documented by a physician, religious observance, and participation in University activities at the request of University authorities. Official documentation must be provided.

Academic Dishonesty

Students are expected to do their own work on all assignments and exams, unless otherwise noted. Some of your written coursework submitted may be evaluated for signs of plagiarism. Violations of academic integrity will result in a grade of "F" on parts of the course, a failure of the entire course, or a recommendation for suspension from the University. See policy at Dean of Student's Office at: http://www.shsu.edu/~slo_www/.

Student Academic Policies

Student Academic Policies concerning Attendance, Academic Honesty, Disabled Students and Services for Disabled Students, and Absences on Religious Holy days may be found at: <http://www.shsu.edu/dept/academic-affairs/aps/aps-students.html>.

Students with Disabilities

If you are visually, hearing or physically impaired, have a learning disability, and/or have a communication disorder that may affect your performance in this class, please contact the Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) Office at 936-294-3512, TDD 936-294-3786, by email disability@shsu.edu, or visit website at www.shsu.edu/disability for information. Please also notify your advisor and/or professor as soon as possible so that provisions may be made to better ensure that you will have an equal opportunity to meet the requirements of the class. Also see <http://www.shsu.edu/dept/academic-affairs/documents/aps/students/811006.pdf> for the disabled student policy.

Student Absences on Religious Holy Day Policy

Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. A student who is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence. <http://www.shsu.edu/dept/academic-affairs/aps/aps-students.html>.

Email

Emails sent through the University email system will be responded to via your student email account. It is YOUR responsibility to check your emails regularly, and to make sure you are receiving messages. Always place your full name, class number, and section number in the subject line, when sending an email to the instructor.
