

READ 4215- Multidisciplinary Literacies

Fall 2017

READ 4215 is a required course for all EC-6 candidates and for EC-6 Certification

College of Education

Department of Language, Literacy & Special Populations

Instructor: Ms. Carolyn Moore

Office hours: by appointment. Please email me at edu_com@shsu.edu or carolynmoore513@yahoo.com

Phone: (281)813-4837

Day and time the class meets: Wednesday- 5:30pm-7:20pm

Location of class: Garrett Teacher Education Center

Room 111E

Course Description:

This course emphasizes analysis, synthesis, and evaluation for the teaching of multidisciplinary literacies in grades EC-6. Preservice teachers apply content specific literacy skills and strategies designed to enhance students' reading, writing, listening, speaking, and thinking. A variety of materials are used to develop the process of teaching inquiry and research.

IDEA Objectives:

In this course, our focus will be on these major objectives (as assessed by the IDEA course evaluation system):

Essential: Develop specific skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals in the field most closely related to this course

Important: Learn to apply course material (to improve thinking, problem solving, and decisions)

Textbooks:

Gail E. Tompkins, 50 Literacy Strategies, Step by Step, 4th edition, Pearson Publishers

Course Format:

This course consists of in-class activities, readings from the textbook, investigations of textbooks, Internet and other media, out of classroom projects and candidates' presentations. It is very important that the candidates see the connections between the content of this class and the work they do during their field experiences.

Couse Content:

Objective 1: The candidate demonstrates knowledge in the purposes for using multidisciplinary literacies.

Objective 2: The candidate analyzes informational texts for structure, features, genres, and content for instructional purposes.

Objective 3: The candidate identifies and describes strategies that support learning content material through listening, speaking, writing, thinking, and reading.

Objective 4: The candidate designs and implements instruction using multidisciplinary strategies to increase content learning for all students.

Objective 5: The candidate uses instructional and informational technologies to support multidisciplinary literacies.

Objective 6: The candidate uses the inquiry process to explore, analyze, and synthesize information to create an authentic piece of informational text.

The course will follow this tentative outline:

Week 1	Developing a Framework for Teaching Nonfiction through the Five Literacies
Week 2	Strategies for Supporting Content Comprehension- Front Loading Lessons
Week 3	Matching Nonfiction to Students' Interests and Needs and Text Sets
Week 4	Evaluating and Selecting Informational Texts- Access Features
Week 5	Navigating through Organizational Structures of Informational Text
Week 6	Strategies for Reading Informational Text
Week 7	Reading and Writing Discovery Circles
Week 8	Discovering Digital Literacies
Week 9	Navigating through Digital Literacies
Week 10	Approaches for Writing Informational Text- Organizing for Research
Week 11	Exploring Multi-genre approaches to Writing Informational Text
Week 12	Research Approaches- The Inquiry Process/ Gathering Data
Week 13	Research Approaches and Writing Informational Text- Student Publishing Informational Text
Week 14	Deconstructing and Analyzing Finished Products
Week 15	Presenting Research Reports and Text Sets

Course Requirements:

- Assignments: All papers must be word processed, double spaced, spell checked. Cite references where applicable. Where noted in the schedule, assignments will be turned in via Blackboard. Assignments must be in .doc format. If an assignment is not able to be opened due to a wrong file format, it will be counted as late. Please check that the upload was successful and correct format.
- Late assignment policy- Please pay special attention to observe the due dates for each of the assignments. If you are aware of problems or special situations BEFORE the due dates, contact the professor for special arrangements. If your work is submitted later than the day specified, the following points are deducted:
 1. Up to 24 hours: 25% of the total assessed points are deducted.
 2. From 25-72 hours: 50% of the total assessed points are deducted.
 3. After 72 hours: late assignment will NOT be accepted.
- Absences: On the second absence, 20 points will be deducted from final grade. More than two absences will result in failing the class. If you have any reason for missing more than two classes, you should withdraw from the class and retake it at a more manageable time.

- Lateness to class or Early Departure: You are late if not in the room and ready to begin class by 5:30pm. An excuse is not necessary for an occasional tardy (less than 5 minutes), but two tardy marks will result in a reduction of your final grade by 10 points. Every tardy thereafter will result in 10 points more. Leaving the class more than 5 minutes early will result in the same penalty.
- Cell Phone Policy Sam Houston State University Academic Policy Statement 100728 Cell phone usage: I expect you to be a responsible professional with regards to your cell phone use during class. All phones should be put on silent when class begins. Texting during class can be distracting to others. Emergencies only are allowed. If I feel that these issues are becoming excessive, I will address them privately. If the problem still persists, 5 points will be deducted from the final grade for each occurrence due to lack of professionalism.

Expectations:

Although I am certain most of you are clear about what democratic deliberation and civil discussion entails, I want to spell out in writing how our discussions should precede. We will refer directly to these ground rules if the situation arises.

1. Respect
 - We are not always going to agree or see everything the same way; each person has a right to and responsibility for his/her own feelings, thoughts, and beliefs.
 - When speaking of an occurrence or relaying one's experience outside the class refrain from disclosing identities of those involved.
 - Show courtesy.
2. Comfort
 - Students and professor should work together to make a safe, respectful, and comfortable atmosphere for associating.
 - I will not ask you to take any risks in class (such as sharing your own experience) that I am not willing to take myself. We are in this together!
 - No question is stupid! We all learn at different paces and by asking questions
3. Honesty
 - You should feel comfortable and respected in the academic environment so that you speak honestly about your thoughts, ideas and opinions.
 - All work you submit must be your own. If you use someone else's words or work please use appropriate citations.
 - World Wide Web – Any work you find on the web must be cited. Provide the URL and the name of the website and the date it was accessed. Lessons found on the Web must be adapted and modified (using proper citations) for your personal use.

NCATE Accreditation

The National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), the largest accreditation body in the United States, is officially recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and highly acclaimed as an accrediting body for institutions that prepare educators for professional roles in schools. NCATE's mission is to provide accountability and improvement in educator preparation through a standards-based assessment. NCATE accreditation adds value to your education as a program of high quality in the educational community.

"NCATE standards are based on the belief that all children can and should learn, (NCATE, 2008)." The effectiveness of the College or Unit is measured based on the standards, which are institutional guidelines that ensure knowledge, skills, and professional dispositions educators need to facilitate P-12 learning.

The NCATE website is source for additional information accessed as follows:

<http://www.ncate.org/documents/standards/NCATE%20Standards%202008.pdf>

The Conceptual Framework and Model

The COE Conceptual Framework establishes the shared vision of the college in preparing educators to work with P-12 students through programs dedicated to collaboration in instruction, field experience, and research, the candidates in Sam Houston State University's Educator Preparation Programs acquire the knowledge, dispositions, and skills necessary to create a positive learning environment preparing educators to work with P-12 students. Employing a variety of technologies, candidates learn to plan, implement, assess, and modify instruction to meet the needs of diverse learners.

The Conceptual Framework (CF) incorporates five (5) indicators throughout the framework that serve to identify areas tied to course work where there is evidence of Conceptual Framework and goals assessment. The five indicators are:

Knowledge Base (CF 1)

Technological Learning Environment (CF 2)

Communication (CF 3)

Assessment (CF 4)

Effective Field Experience with Diverse Learners (CF 5)

Enhancing The Future
Through Educator Preparation

SHSU Dispositions and Diversity Proficiencies

1. Demonstrates an attitude of reflection and thoughtfulness about professional growth and instruction. (CF 1)
2. Demonstrates a commitment to using technology to create an authentic learning environment that promotes problem-solving and decision making for diverse learners. (CF 2)
3. Practices ethical behavior and intellectual honesty. (CF 3)
4. Demonstrates thoughtfulness in communication and an awareness and appreciation of varying voices. (CF 3)
5. Demonstrates knowledge of second language acquisition and a commitment to adapting instruction or programs to meet the needs of culturally and linguistically diverse learners. (CF 3; CF 5)
6. Demonstrates ability to be understanding, respectful and inclusive of diverse populations. (CF 3; CF 5)
7. Uses assessment as a tool to evaluate learning and improve instruction for all learners. (CF 4)
8. Demonstrates a commitment to literacy, inquiry, and reflection. (CF 1; CF 4)
9. Leads diverse learners to higher level thinking in cognitive, affective and/or psychomotor domains. (CF 5)
10. Demonstrates a commitment to adapting instruction or programs to meet the needs of diverse learners. (CF 5)

The Dispositions and Diversity Proficiencies (DDP) are administered and evaluated during the initial and advanced programs in prescribed courses.

(Please provide additional information for the candidate if the DDP is administered during your course.)

College of Education Information:

Please be advised that the College of Education conducts ongoing research regarding the effectiveness of the programs. You will receive one survey in the final semester prior to graduation regarding the operations of the unit during your time here. A second survey will occur within one year following graduation from or completion of a program, and will be sent to you and to your employer. This survey will focus on the preparation received at SHSU. Please remember that your response to these surveys is critical to SHSU program excellence.

Course Content: Candidates will learn to use all forms of literacy to enhance content area learning.

Assignments:

A. Class attendance and participation (100 points)

To socially construct knowledge, all class participants must be present in class and actively involved in discussions. We are all learners—so let's learn together. Class attendance is mandatory and absences will negatively impact your learning and your total course grade. Attendance is critical for this course. You are allowed one absence. Class participation is vital. You will receive 100 professional points for your academic and professional participation.

B. Nonfiction Book Analysis (hard copy submitted in class with books) (100 points)

- Select a content related nonfiction topic/subject for both books.
- Follow the guidelines listed in the syllabus for formatting assignments (Word Document, Times New Roman, double-spaced, 12 pt. font).
- Include with the summary a digital image of the book you have chosen.

Nonfiction Book Analysis (MUST REFER TO RUBRIC AS WELL)

- Select TWO nonfiction books using the selected topic/subject. One will be approximately grades K-2 and the other will be 3-6 reading level.
- Include the following with justification (refer to rubric):
 - Detailed summary
 - What type of nonfiction?
 - How is the book organized?
 - What access features are presented?
 - Are there visuals, if so what type and how are they useful?
- Refer to rubric provided

Rubrics will be provided for all assignments

C. Content Strategy Lesson Plan/Presentation(200 points).

You will sign up for a time to present content literacy strategies to the class in a lesson plan format. You will be responsible for teaching the lesson involving the class as the "students." The strategies will be presented throughout the semester with a handout describing the steps for implementing the strategy for each member of the class. You will be responsible for organizing the strategies in a notebook or binder and reflecting on each strategy. The notebooks/binders will be submitted at the end of the semester.

D. Investigative Inquiry and Informational Book Project (200 points)

The research report is a very important part of classroom students' learning of nonfiction material. During class you will be presented with information on successful ways for students to incorporate nonfiction text features into the process of report writing. Course students in pairs will work on organization to complete this project in class as well as out of class. Project will include investigating a topic and going through the writing process to publish an informational text. Pairs will then submit the final product of the process and present in class.

Rubric provided

E. Content Area Textbook Evaluation (hard copy submitted in class) (100 points)

You will need to obtain a current (within the past 5 years) content area textbook (social studies or science.) for grades 1-6 (only need to select one textbook). You can locate a book at the field base campus you will be at or try a used book store, as well as on the main campus. It does not need to be a textbook from the grade you are doing your field base. If you are in a grade level that does not use a textbook, you will need to visit another grade level to use their textbook TE. You do not need to bring the actual textbook to class.

Refer to analysis sheet provided

F. Poetry Café(100 points)

You will choose your favorite poem, be prepared to present to class. You may use any prompts(costumes, music or whatever you choose. JUST MAKE US SMILE.

G. Final Reflection (100 points)

- In this paper, you will reflect on your entire semester in READ 4215. The four important areas you need to critically discuss are: (a) what did I learn about myself, (b) what did I learn about my classmates, (c) what did I learn about teaching as a profession, and (d) how can I use all of this information to enhance my academic endeavors. This paper should be a minimum of 4 typed pages and not more than 5 typed pages.

Course Evaluation:

I take the evaluation and grading of your work very seriously, and I know you work very hard to do your best in your courses. While it may take me a little longer to read your work and return it to you, I read papers more than once before assigning a grade to them.

Grade: Calculated by the total number of points as listed in table:

Points	Grade
900 – 1000	A
800 – 899	B
700 – 799	C
Below 700	F

PLEASE NOTE:

Grades in the class are a product of your progress and ingenuity. It is essential that you demonstrate your growth this term through attendance, participation, work on class assignments, and projects. Unless a substantiated medical reason exists, absences will result in a lowered grade.

Grades reflect the professional level of the final submissions:

A (900-1000); B (800-899); C (700-799)

NOTE: NO GRADE BELOW “C” IS ACCEPTABLE FOR THIS COURSE.

GRADING SCALE CRITERIA

A = Excellent. All work is completed in a professional manner and contains evidence of effort and accomplishment. The work is professional and complete in content and appearance.

B = Good. All work is completed proficiently and contains evidence of effort and accomplishment. The work is complete in content and appearance.

C = Average. The work is complete. The work contains all required parts but lacks evidence of time and effort.

F = Failing. The work is inadequate or incomplete.

Other Required Syllabi Elements:

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

All students are expected to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of academic work will be subject to disciplinary action. The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work which is to be submitted, plagiarism, collusion and the abuse of resource materials. For a complete listing of the university policy, see: Dean of Student's Office

STUDENT ABSENCES ON RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS POLICY:

Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. Section 51.911 (a) (2) defines a religious holy day as: "a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Section 11.20...." A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

University policy 861001 provides the procedures to be followed by the student and instructor. A student desiring to absent himself/herself from a scheduled class in order to observe (a) religious holy day(s) shall present to each instructor involved a written statement concerning the religious holy day(s). The instructor will complete a form notifying the student of a reasonable timeframe in which the missed assignments and/or examinations are to be completed. For a complete listing of the university policy, see:

http://www.shsu.edu/~vaf www/aps/documents/861001.pdf

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES POLICY:

It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that individuals otherwise qualified shall not be excluded, solely by reason of their disability, from participation in any academic program of the university. Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities that might affect their academic performance are expected to visit with the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities located in the Counseling Center. They should then make arrangements with their individual instructors so that appropriate strategies can be considered and helpful procedures can be developed to ensure that participation and achievement opportunities are not impaired.

SHSU adheres to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. If you have a disability that may affect adversely your work in this class, then I encourage you to register with the SHSU Counseling Center and to talk with me about how I can best help you. All disclosures of disabilities will be kept strictly confidential. NOTE: No accommodation can be made until you register with the Counseling Center. For a complete listing of the university policy, see:

http://www.shsu.edu/~vaf www/aps/811006.pdf

VISITORS IN THE CLASSROOM:

Only registered students may attend class. Exceptions can be made on a case-by-case basis by the professor. In all cases, visitors must not present a disruption to the class by their attendance. Students wishing to audit a class must apply to do so through the Registrar's Office.
