THEA 1364

Course Objectives: To learn basic techniques in body, voice, characterization, and play analysis as they are applied to the performance of stage tasks by the actor. We will be delving into warm-ups, improv exercises, breaking scenes into “Beats”, intentions/motivations of character, talking and listening on-stage and making strong and creative choices. NOTE: There is no required text. Please see list below for recommended reading.

Attendance: Each student’s point score for Attendance/Participation starts at 30 and is deducted as absences occur. To keep track, click on your My Grades page at the course homepage at Bb. A maximum of three (3) absences is the guideline to keep in mind. Please arrive on time and ready to work. Two tardies (2) =1 absence. Excessive absences and tardiness will continue to reduce of your final grade. More than 3 absences results in a lowered letter grade. 10 or more than 10 absences, that is 1/3rd of the scheduled classes missed, results in an F.

You are recorded as absent unless there is written intervention from the Office of the Dean of Students (located in the LSC). Likewise, you may make up written work late only if you have a legitimate and documented reason approved by the Dean of Students Office, e.g., university obligation, hospitalization, court appearance, jury duty, funeral. No written work will be accepted after the last day of the class, Thursday Nov 30th 2017.

- The Office of the Dean of Students is located in the Lohman Student Center; just take your document(s) to that office, which, in turn, will notify all of your professors by e-mail.
- Scene Finals and Cold Reading Assignments are scheduled on the term’s final 4 days of class. An absence on these days, results in no point scores for these assignments. Your grade is affected.

There is no final exam or required attendance for this class during student exam week.

Final Course Grade (Your Banner or Letter Grade) = Total Point Score

A = 200-180 points

B = 179-159 points

C = 158-138 points

D = 137-117 points

F = 116-0

All Performance Assignments will be scheduled in a particular order on the Class Calendar. It is each student’s responsibility to keep his or her attention on Notifications Page/Announcements/Blackboard. If you are ABSENT on your scheduled rehearsal or performance day, YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO MAKE UP THIS PERFORMANCE ASSIGNMENT and will receive 0 points for the Assignment. Your partner will NOT be penalized. One (1) MAKE-UP assignment may be requested. MAKE-UP assignment is a written Assignment.

Play Critique Paper of 1 SHSU Theatre Dept Production: Students will be required to attend and then review one (1) Department of Theatre and Musical Theatre production. Students write a Critique and then upload it, NO HARD COPY is required or will be accepted. The Play Critique Paper is journalism: it should be a reporting of the acting: what worked, and what didn't, and it must support your opinions with those examples from the play that you see and hear. The Play Critique Guidelines are structured to help you construct answers like a theatre critic. Play Critique Paper is a formal paper and has a required format.

Play Critique Papers are uploaded to TurnItIn link. FIND the Guidelines and the TurnItIn link under IMPORTANT LINKS, always online for student access from Course Announcements page at Blackboard. Your Show Program and Ticket is turned in to Instructor.

Each SHSU Student taking a theatre course is on a checklist HELD at Theatre Box Office, for 1 FREE ticket to every show

Understanding 100 points = 20 points score - Formula is: # points earned x .2

Examples: 100 points = (100 x .2) = 20 point score

96% = (96 x .2) = 19.2 point score at My Grades

89% = (89 x .2) = 17.8 point score at My Grades

76% = (75 x .2) = 15.2 point score at My Grades

Classroom Etiquette and Attire: Please wear clothes that you feel comfortable moving in. SHSU Dept of Theatre believes that exciting, breathing, vibrant theatre is not possible without everyone contributing. Evaluations will be made on all exercises and scene work. This evaluation also expands to the DAY TO DAY INVOLVEMENT, in other words... This is not a lecture class. We will be 'discussing' different viewpoints of the craft of acting. These discussions, requiring active participation of each student, are not constructed towards a written analysis or test, but towards student implementation.

Performance Training Disclosure: SHSU/Pamela Vogel endorses the concept that the body is the performer's true instrument of creativity and craft. It is through the body (including voice production) that a performer communicates to an audience. Consequently, the nature of performance (acting, movement) training will at times require physical touch between instructor and student and/or between student and student in order to clarify or demonstrate the body's processes as related to the training.

- If you have any special needs or concerns, are uncomfortable with the nature of this work, or have physical conditions or injuries which may restrict or prevent your taking part in the work, please make an appointment with the instructor for further discussion. If you are uncomfortable discussing this with your instructor, please see our Department Associate Chair, Thomas Prior.
- Talk to me! If you need to contact me, you can email me. Please do not hesitate to contact me regarding questions on class activities, monologues/scene work etc., throughout the term.
