IDEA Objectives: In this course, our focus will be on these major objectives (as assessed by the IDEA course evaluation system):

Essential: Learning to apply course material (to improve thinking, problem solving and decision making as it pertains to assessment choice and interpreting results)

Important: Developing specific skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals in the field most closely related to this course

Course Format: The format of the class includes lecture small group discussions, whole class discussion, class presentations and on-line assignments.

Course Content: There will be 3 in-class assignments and 2 on-line assignments.

The in-class assignments include group presentations and individual projects that will be due before the end of the face to face class meetings. Projects will be discussed fully on the first day of class. Since our face-to-face class time has been cut two days there will be two assignments to be turned in while you are in your student teaching placements. Due dates are posted in the syllabus and the out of class assignments will be turned in on Blackboard in assignment drop box. Do not email me the assignment.

In Class Assignments:

- Assignment #1 Groups will prepare a presentation on one type of Assessment demonstrating several classroom strategies for that assessment. (100 pts.)
- Assignment #2 Lesson Plan with a TEKS objective and explanations for the three types of assessments and how they would be used including rationale for your choice of assessment. (100 pts.)
- Assignment #3 Create a tri-fold brochure explaining the types of assessment with examples for each assessment, include websites. (100 pts.)

Out of Class Assignments:

- Assignment #4 STARR research and overview: You will submit a research paper on: The State of Texas Assessments of Academic Readiness, including overview of STARR, testing requirements, when and who is tested, and most recent results state wide. (Assignment #4 STARR Research will be Due on Blackboard Sunday, October 8th) (100 pts.)
- Assignment #5 Assessment Observations: Respond to the questions in an essay format (the questions are there to guide you in your thinking and your observations of classroom assessment and its purpose for teacher and student.) (Assignment #5 will be Due on Blackboard Sunday, November 5th) (100 pts.)
- Detailed rubrics will be provided for each assignment.

The professor reserves the right to alter course requirements to better meet the learning needs of the teacher candidates.

Papers turned in must comply with the following:

1. Papers must be typed in a 12-14 clear font, double spaced APA format. No handwritten papers will be accepted.
2. Please use spell/grammar check. Always proofread before you turn in work!

3. Follow recommended length and format.
4. Include a cover page with your name and class section.
5. Staple pages together.
6. Include the rubric with the assignment.
7. Papers turned in to Blackboard and TK20 must be in Word format, do not use WinZip or some other software.
8. Do not email me your assignment if you expect to receive credit.

Course Requirements:

Professionalism/Participation (100 points)

You are currently in a professional course of study which prepares you to be a responsible teacher and accountable to and for our most precious assets, our children, as well as their parents, your peers and administrators. This is not a responsibility to be taken lightly. Your joyful and enthusiastic participation as well as a responsible learning attitude will be exemplary models for our young children. In this course, everyone begins with 100 points, the maximum for exemplary professional behavior. Loss of points can be the result of absences, tardies, unfinished or poorly prepared work, poor communication between your colleagues, negative attitudes, lack of initiative, impatience, rudeness, or other unprofessional behavior. Loss of most or all professionalism points will result in the submission of a note to the College of Education's Professional Concerns Committee. The instructor will determine the final total of professionalism points.

- Late assignment policy: (Please make special notice of due dates, I do not make exceptions.)
 - up to 24 hours 75% credit
 - 25 to 48 hours 50% credit
 - More than 48 hours 0%, but must be turned in to pass course

All assignments are due on the date posted.

- Time requirement
This course is a three-hour course, which is 45 clock hours. The class format will be 20 hours in August with the remaining hours to be done on-line throughout the semester. To receive full credit, students must attend each scheduled class. If a class is missed, the student should see the professor regarding make-up work.

You will lose 15 points for each absence.

If a student is fifteen minutes (or more) late to class or leaves class fifteen minutes or more before class is over, an absence will be recorded. A student who shows a pattern of being a few minutes late (but less than 15) will be notified that continuation of that pattern will result in an absence.

Regular and punctual attendance is required and will be documented every class period.

BE SURE YOU SIGN IN AS YOU ENTER CLASS! YOU WILL BE COUNTED ABSENT IF YOU DO NOT SIGN IN, EVEN IF YOU WERE PRESENT!

Professionalism policy

Professionalism is expected, both in the classroom and in the public schools. During your student teaching proper dress is expected. The teacher candidates should practice appropriate dress and behavior simultaneously as they practice the application of instructional strategies they are learning in the classroom. In my classroom cell phones, laptops, and tablets are to be used for classroom research tools any other personal use will result in significant loss of professionalism points. (I document the improper use of technology each day of class and deduct points under professionalism.)

▪ Academic Dishonesty policy

1. GENERAL

The subject of academic honesty is addressed in paragraph 5.3, Chapter VI, of the Rules and Regulations, Board of Regents, The Texas State University System, and Sam Houston State University Student Guidelines published by the Office of Student Life to wit:

5.3 Academic Honesty. The University expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of academic work will be subject to disciplinary action.

5.31 The University and its official representatives, acting in accordance with Subsection 5.32, may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials.

"Cheating" includes the following and similar actions:

- (1) Copying from another student's test paper, laboratory report, other report, or computer files, data listings, and/or programs.
- (2) Using, during a test, materials not authorized by the person giving the test.
- (3) Collaborating, without authorization, with another student during an examination or in preparing academic work.
- (4) Knowingly, and without authorization, using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, soliciting, copying, or possessing, in whole or in part, the contents of a test not yet administered.
- (5) Substituting for another student, permitting any other person, or otherwise assisting any other person to substitute for oneself or for another student in the taking of an examination or test or the preparation of academic work to be submitted for academic credit.
- (6) Bribing another person to obtain a test or information about a test not yet administered.
- (7) Purchasing, or otherwise acquiring and submitting as one's own work any research paper or other writing assignment prepared by an individual or firm. This section does not apply to the typing of the rough and/or final versions of an assignment by a professional typist.

5.32 "Plagiarism" means the appropriation and the unacknowledged incorporation of another's work or idea into one's own work offered for credit.

5.33 "Collusion" means the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing work offered for credit.

5.34 "Abuse of resource materials" means the mutilation, destruction, concealment, theft or alteration of materials provided to assist students in the mastery of course materials.

5.35 "Academic work" means the preparation of an essay, dissertation, thesis, report, problem, assignment, or other project that the student submits as a course requirement or for a grade.

2. PROCEDURES IN CASES OF ALLEGED ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

- 2.01 Procedures for discipline due to academic dishonesty shall be the same as in disciplinary actions specified in The Texas State University System Rules and Regulations and Sam Houston State University Student Guidelines except that all academic dishonesty actions shall be first considered and reviewed by the faculty member teaching the class. The faculty member may impose failure or reduction of a grade in a test or the course, and/or performing additional academic work not required of other students in the course. If the faculty member

The faculty member may impose failure or reduction of a grade in a test or the course, and/or performing additional academic work not required of other students in the course. If the faculty member believes that additional disciplinary action is necessary, as in the case of flagrant or repeated violations, the case may be referred to the Dean of Student Life or a designated appointee for further action. If the student involved does not accept the decision of the faculty member, the student may appeal to the chair of the appropriate academic department/school, seeking reversal of the faculty member's decision.
- 2.02 If the student does not accept the decision of the chair of the academic department/school, he/she may appeal to the appropriate academic dean. The chair of the academic department/school may also refer the case directly to the academic dean if the case so warrants.

NCATE Accreditation

The Sam Houston State University, College of Education has the distinction of NCATE accreditation since 1954. As an NCATE accredited program, the College of Education ensures that the best-prepared teachers will be in classrooms teaching the next generation of leaders how to solve problems, communicate effectively, and work collaboratively.

In November 2010, NCATE merged with the Teacher Education Accreditation Council (TEAC) to become the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP), combining the two premiere accrediting organizations as a single accrediting agency for reform, innovation, and research in educator preparation. SHSU will continue to be NCATE accredited through its next review scheduled for November 2015.

SHSU Dispositions and Diversity Proficiency (DDP) Standards

CF: Conceptual Framework

CAEP: Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (see page 20-21 of CAEP Standards for cross-cutting themes and diversity characteristics)

 NCATE: National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education
 InTASC: Interstate Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium

The Dispositions and Diversity Proficiency (DDP) Standards are administered and evaluated in prescribed courses to all educator preparation student in initial and advanced programs (please provide additional information for the candidate if the DDP is administered during your course).

College of Education Information:

Please be advised that the College of Education conducts ongoing research regarding the effectiveness of the programs. You will receive one survey in the final semester prior to graduation regarding the operations of the unit during your time here. A second survey will occur within one year following graduation from or completion of a program, and will be sent to you and to your employer. This survey will focus on the preparation received at SHSU. Please remember that your response to these surveys is critical to SHSU program excellence.
