IDEA Objectives: The instruction in this course will address the following major objectives (as assessed by the IDEA course evaluation system):

Essential: Gaining factual knowledge (terminology, classifications, methods, trends).

Important: Gaining a broader understanding and appreciation of intellectual/cultural activity (music, drama, etc)

Course/Instructor Requirements:

Late assignment policy: Assignments are expected to be submitted at 5:30 pm on due date noted on the course calendar, unless another date is posted. Late assignments will result in point deductions. (One-point deduction after 5:30 pm and an additional point per day if it is submitted after the due date).

Time requirement: This is a 3-hour credit course. Each week the student will spend 3 hours a week in class and an additional 4-9 hours a week reading, studying, and preparing for the class.

Attendance policy: Each class session is important to your understanding of the course content. This course is 3 hours in length. Students may not miss more than three hours (1 class sessions) during the semester. 10 points are deducted for each hour of absence beyond the initial 3 hours. If you miss any class, it is your responsibility to obtain the needed handouts, information, and materials. Tardy to class will result in ½ hour absence. It is your responsibility to sign the roll sheet at the beginning of each class period.

Regular and punctual attendance is expected. This is a "hands-on" course. Many of the instructional techniques are demonstrated in class and debriefed during large and small group discussions. Attendance also demonstrates a level of responsibility and commitment to the field of Early Education. Excessive absence situations will be addressed on an individual basis.

Assignments and grading: Work is to be submitted to the course basket, presented in class and electronically to the appropriate drop box. All grading criteria/rubrics will be provided when the assignment is introduced. Attach a grading rubric to each assignment you wish graded. If there is no rubric, a 1-point deduction will result. A TK-20 submission is part of this course. Failure to submit portfolio to TK-20 will result in a letter grade drop.

TK20 Account is required for this course:

Tk20 Account is required for this course. Tk20 is an electronic toolkit used by candidates to provide evidence that they have mastered state and professional standards for the profession. Additional information regarding Tk20 is available at: https://tk20.shsu.edu/

SHSU Online and Blackboard Information: All assignments, grading rubrics, announcements, quizzes, discussion material, and group participation information will be posted on Blackboard. It is your responsibility to access the class site frequently. Microsoft Office is the preferred operating system for opening and creating documents (PowerPoints and Word documents). Feedback will be provided using "track changes" - all markup.

Course Content: ECHE 3315 is an early childhood course designed to prepare pre-service educators for working with young children preschool through fourth grade. Students will focus on the five core aspects of creative expression: (1) arts and crafts, (2) creative writing and poetry, (3) dance and creative movement, (4) drama, and (5) music.

College of Education Information

Accreditation

The programs within the SHSU College of Education have the distinction of receiving accreditation and national recognition from multiple accrediting bodies. All educator certification programs, including teaching and professional certifications, have received ongoing accreditation from the Texas Education Agency (TEA). Additionally, the educator preparation program has been accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP-formerly NCATE) since 1954. Many of the educator preparation concentration areas have also chosen to pursue national recognition from their respective Specialized Professional Associations (SPA), signifying the program is among the best in the nation. The programs within the Department of Counselor Education have also received accreditation from the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP).

Course and Program Evaluation

Near the end of the semester, students are asked to take part in the University's adopted course evaluation system, IDEA. The assessments are completed online and instructions are emailed to each student. Students' assessments of courses are taken are systematically reviewed by the Dean, Associate Deans, Department Chairs, and individual faculty members. Only after the semester has completed are faculty members allowed to view aggregated results of non-personally-identifiable student responses.

The College of Education conducts ongoing research regarding the effectiveness of the programs. Students receive one survey in the final semester prior to graduation regarding the operations of the unit during their time here. A second survey occurs within one year following completion of a program, and is sent to students and their employers. This survey requests information related to students' quality of preparation while at SHSU. Students' responses to these surveys are critical to maintaining SHSU's programs' excellence.
