COURSE DESCRIPTION

Composition II provides the student with training in the craft of composition through individual instruction and group study. Expectations will increase for the quality and quantity of compositional output in Applied Composition 1, Applied Composition 2, and Graduate Applied Composition respectively.

MANDATORY ATTENDANCE

All students enrolled in composition must attend the Monday composer forum meetings and other events listed in the calendar handed out at the first forum meeting. (Some forums and events may be considered optional for those enrolled in Composition 1...see below.) Each of these meetings/events is worth a portion of the overall semester grade. Points will not be awarded for absences unless an excuse deemed valid by the instructor is given prior to the absence.

PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTS

It is expected that composition students will have at least one performance of their original work during each semester. (Exceptions will be made for Composition I students in their first semester and for nonmajors.) These performances may take place on or off-campus. Off-campus performances must be approved on a case-by-case basis to meet this requirement by your composition instructor. A recital program must be saved and included in the semester portfolio to receive credit for any performance.

WEEKLY LESSONS

You and your instructor will work out a weekly schedule for your lessons. Attendance, punctuality, and preparation for these lessons will be considered each week for your weekly lesson grade. You must cancel and reschedule a lesson by email at some point prior to the beginning of that lesson. Missed lessons will not be made up if not rescheduled before the time of the original lesson and without a valid excuse. The grade for a missed lesson that is not made up will be a zero. You are expected to bring hardcopies of your work to all lessons, unless otherwise instructed.

APPLICATIONS TO CALLS FOR SCORES, COMPETITIONS, FESTIVALS, ETC.

Each student will be expected to submit to at least one call for scores, competition, or festival during the semester. Information about submission opportunities will be given in forum and through the Ars Perpetua online group. A printout of correspondence proving the receipt of your application should be included in your semester portfolio.

FINAL GRADE CALCULATIONS FOR COMP 5201

Weekly lesson grades will be based upon demonstrated achievement in a combination of the following areas:

- Attendance and promptness at lessons and scheduled composers meetings/events
- Quality and amount of newly-sketched material
- Quality and amount of revision to previously-presented material
- Incorporation of instructors' suggestions
- Bringing necessary materials to the lesson
- Completion of any score study/listening assignments given
- Semester Jury/Portfolio
- Completion of or participation in any calls for scores, group compositions, or other activities planned for the semester

SEMESTER JURY/PORTFOLIO REQUIREMENTS

Each student will assemble their composition materials for the semester into a portfolio, to be presented at a semester jury during finals week. It is the student's responsibility to present these materials to their instructor for feedback during lesson times approaching the deadline. Two identical portfolios should be presented at the time of the jury. Each portfolio should contain:

1. a completed Jury Cover Sheet (found at the end of this document)
2. a completed Semester Listening Journal (found at the end of this document)
3. sketches (for pieces that have not gotten past sketch phase)
4. incomplete scores (for pieces that aren't yet finished)
5. completed works (must have professional appearance: cover inside cover, etc.)
6. you will need to have a means for playing sound files for your completed works. A computer will be available to pull up e-mailed files or to play files from a thumb drive or you can bring your own playback device

CRITERIA FOR PORTFOLIO EVALUATION

Portfolios will be evaluated by composition faculty and given grades based upon the level of achievement shown in the following areas: amount of complete and/or incomplete materials created, quality of composed materials, presentation of scores, student attitude, work ethic, overall achievement for specific level of study (Composition I, Composition II, Graduate Composition). For Composition II, there will be a general expectation of 8+ minutes of music that has been appropriately thought through and revised according to instructor input.

GRADUATE COMPOSITION RECITAL

Usually during the last semester of Graduate Applied Composition, a graduate composition major will produce the required recital made up of the composer's approved original music. Performances on the recital will be made by live musicians (except in the case of electronic music) that may include students, faculty, and the composer. The music office must be contacted and a recital packet completed at the beginning of the semester during which the student will give the recital.

CRITERIA FOR EVALUATION OF GRADUATE COMPOSITION DEGREE RECITAL

A = A well-rounded program of 35+ minutes with outstanding, effective, and convincing original works.

B = Overall good in quantity and quality of original works with a few minor areas of concern.

C = Satisfactory in quantity and quality of original works with a couple of major concerns or many minor areas of concern. Not indicative of strong potential for graduate work in composition.

D/F = Not satisfactory in quantity and/or quality of original works to earn a passing grade. Must be retaken.

POLICY ON ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

The Faculty Handbook states that the University expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of academic work will be subject to disciplinary action. Furthermore, the University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work which is to be submitted, plagiarism, collusion and the abuse of resource materials.

PROPER CLASSROOM DEMEANOR/RULES OF CONDUCT:

Students will refrain from behavior in the classroom that intentionally or unintentionally disrupts the learning process and, thus, impedes the mission of the university. Please turn off or mute your cellular phone and/or pager before class begins. Students are prohibited from eating in class, using tobacco products, making offensive remarks, reading newspapers, sleeping, talking among each other at inappropriate times, wearing inappropriate clothing, or engaging in any other form of distraction. Inappropriate behavior in the classroom shall result in, minimally, a directive to leave class or being reported to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action in accordance with university policy.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT:

SHSU adheres to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. If you have a disability that may affect adversely your work in this class, then I encourage you to register with the Counseling Center and to talk with me about how I can best help you. All disclosures of disabilities will be kept strictly confidential. No accommodation can be made until you register with the Counseling Center.

STUDENT ABSENCES ON RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS POLICY:

Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence. University policy 861001 provides the procedures to be followed by the student and instructor. A student desiring to be absent himself/herself from a scheduled class in order to observe (a) religious holy day(s) shall present to each instructor involved a written statement concerning the religious holy day(s). This request must be made in the first 15 days of the semester or the first 7 days of a summer session in which the absence(s) will occur. The instructor will complete a form notifying the student of a reasonable timeframe in which the missed assignments and/or examinations are to be completed.

INFORMATION FOR MUSICIANS ABOUT STAYING HEALTHY:

All students are encouraged to read materials provided by the National Association of Schools of Music and the Performing Arts Medicine Association. These three handouts can be found on the SHSU School of Music website. From the School of Music homepage, click on Current Students and then Current Students Homepage on the dropdown list. Links to these pdf files will be on this page under NASM Student Information Sheets. Below are the links to the three handouts:
