COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course designed for undergraduate and graduate piano majors, earns two hours of credit per semester. In this course, the student is challenged with technique exercises, sight reading skills and learning methods. Repertoire is surveyed, prepared and coached individually. As the semester evolves, the student acquires many tools to help problem-solve in assimilating music scores, knowledge of repertoire is enhanced and individual technical needs are assessed and addressed. ONLY students that give a recital are not required to play a jury at the end of the semester.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The objective of the individual piano lessons course is to help each student improve their musical and technical piano skills. The student is trained to develop practicing skills necessary to further enhance the abilities nurture the sensitive art of music making. The student is challenged in all aspects of musicianship; to become more aware of the full musical score. The purpose of the course is to help the student fill gaps in earlier training. Ultimately, this course is designed to equip the student with the tools necessary to work in the professional arena upon graduation.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The student will improve and enjoy the art of piano playing. The student will learn how to practice and learn music efficiently. The student will become equipped to function successfully in the professional music world.

EXIT COMPETENCIES/REQUIREMENTS:

Requirement for competency in completing the course in independent piano lessons is determined by the following criteria:

The student must achieve a grade of B- or above for each of the required four semesters. A grade of C for the final semester grade will result in the repetition of the course.

GRADING CRITERIA

The semester grade will be determined as following:

Weekly lessons/ Studio Class	40%
Attendance and punctuality at lessons	10%
Juries/Studio Recital	50%

(You are allowed 1 unexcused absence, each additional absence will result in a 5 point deduction from your final grade)

STUDIO CLASS

Attendance is required to all studio classes. Students must perform a minimum of 3 times per semester (three different pieces). Students should bring at least 2 copies of the music they will perform that day in class. All scores must have measure numbers written in. Students should dress professionally – TENNIS SHOES and JEANS are not acceptable.

STUDIO RECITAL

There will be a final concert at the end of the semester with the piano students involved in this course. Attendance for the dress rehearsal and concert is mandatory. Failure to do so will be reflected upon the student's grade.

ABSENCE POLICY

Students should inform the professor in advance of reasons for necessary absences (medical, etc.). Failure to inform the professor may result in an unexcused absence. Unexcused absences are not permissible in PIAN courses, and such absences may result in a lowering of the semester grade.

MATERIALS:

Assigned music is available in the Sam Houston if Music library or for private purchase from music dealers. A list of required pieces will be distributed at the first class meeting.Student Syllabus Guidelines

A more detailed description of the following Student Syllabus Guidelines may be found at: <http://www.shsu.edu/syllabus/>

Academic Dishonesty

Students are expected to maintain honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. See Student Syllabus Guidelines.

Classroom Rules of Conduct

Students are expected to assist in maintaining a classroom environment that is conducive to learning. Students are to treat faculty and students with respect. Students are to turn off all cell phones while in the classroom. Under no circumstances are cell phones or any electronic devices to be used or seen during times of examination. Students may tape record lectures provided they do not disturb other students in the process.
