TEXTBOOK: Cole, Smith and DeJong. The American System of Criminal Justice, 14th Ed. Cengage Learning. 2015. ISBN: 978-1285458991

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is an introductory course designed to familiarize you with the facets of the criminal justice system, the sub-systems and how they interrelate, processing of offenders, punishment and its alternatives, and the future of the criminal justice system. This class will make extensive use of Blackboard to facilitate learning and communication. Lecture materials and links to resources will be posted on the class site. You are expected to take personal initiative in self-assessing your understanding of course material by taking learning checks that are available on the class site. In addition, discussion assignments will be given across the semester that will require you to read and post material to the discussion board.

There will be a quiz with each assigned chapter. The quiz consist of items drawn at random from the test bank. The quiz can be taken at any time during the week the unit is assigned.

Frequent and regular activity in this class will be essential for successful completion.

Course Policies

ATTENDANCE: As an online course your attendance is measured by the level of activity on the Blackboard site. You should log into the course site at least three times per week and maintain regular postings and replies on the discussion boards.

GRADING: Grades will be assigned on a percentage basis on the total of 600 points.

Quizze	es (15 x 20 pts)	300
Discus	sions (15 x 20 pts) 300

MAKE-UP EXAMS: Exams will be taken individually and will not require a make-up policy.
