COURSE GOALS:

- Provide quality choral experiences that encourage lifelong participation in the arts.
- Cultivate musicianship through the development of vocal and ensemble technique, music literacy, interpretation, and expression.
- Provide exposure to a wide variety of musical styles, genres, and periods.
- Promote inclusion and respect for all individuals.
- Foster critical thinking and problem solving skills.

MATERIALS:

- 1-inch black 3-ring binder
- Pencils
- Music (provided)

GRADING AND ATTENDANCE:

- As rehearsals can never truly be “made up,” regular attendance is expected. Each student is allowed 2 absences per semester, after which time his final grade is lowered by one full letter grade (A lowered to B, B lowered to a C, etc.).
- Absences due to University obligations will not count towards these 2 absences, so long as notice is provided via e-mail or in person at least one day in advance. Chronic tardiness or leaving class early may result in the lowering of the final grade.
- Exceptions may be made for extreme circumstances (e.g., death in the family, major illness) at the discretion of the director.
- Failure to attend any Calendar Event, Dress Rehearsal or Performance without director approval to miss will result in an automatic “F” for the course.
- Open and advance communication is the key to effectively dealing with scheduling conflicts or other issues; this is a life skill that you are encouraged to regularly practice!

EXPECTATIONS AND REHEARSAL ETIQUETTE:

- Be on time for rehearsals and performances and come prepared with your materials.
- Actively participate and be “in the moment.” This includes marking your music, listening when other sections are singing, and keeping cell phones put away. If you are not feeling well, it is still expected that you are aurally processing and reacting to what you hear.
- Be respectful to your peers, the director, and the music making process by showing a positive and adaptive attitude at all times.

PERFORMANCE ATTIRE:

Gentlemen are asked to acquire the following attire for all performances:

- White long-sleeve dress shirt
- Black dress slacks (no skinny jeans, tight pants, etc.)
- Black belt
- Black socks and dress shoes
- Black tie

A second tie (SHSU orange) may be required at the approximate price of $25.00
