Required Text

George Ritzer and Jeffrey Stepnisky. 2018. Sociological Theory, Tenth Edition. Los Angeles: SAGE.

Course Objectives, Description and Learning Outcomes

By completing this course students will be able to obtain knowledge of the most relevant sociological theories of the 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries. Emphasis is placed on the relevance of classical sociological theory in the formation and development of modern sociological theory. The characteristics and origins of major sociological schools are explored including the study of the works and ideas of Emile Durkheim, Karl Marx, and Max Weber. The course also investigates the development of Neo-Marxism, Interactionism, Functionalism and Post-Modernism. Accounts of these paradigms are provided together with their theoretical ramifications. Illustration of the basic assumptions of Critical Theory, Symbolic Interaction and Post-structuralism are also provided. The course is designed for students with advanced knowledge of the history, and major substantive areas, of Sociology. Students who took only introductory level sociological courses are advised to take this course only after completing advanced sociology classes. At the end of the semester students should be able to have knowledge of SOCIOLOGICAL THEORIES.

Lectures

There will be brief video lectures by Dr. Bonanno. Additionally, Dr. Bonanno class notes and power-point presentations for each assignment appear on blackboard. Student familiarity with blackboard is necessary. Blackboard and posted material can be accessed through any electronic device including PCs, laptop computers, tablets and smartphones.

Attendance and class behavior

Students must logon to Blackboard regularly and frequently during the semester. It is the student's responsibility to be able to access blackboard to complete assignments and tests. Being disconnected during a test is not a valid excuse to ask for a re-take.

Credit and Examinations

Tests

* There will be eleven (11) tests during the semester, one for each of the assigned chapters.

*Of these eleven (11) tests only eight (8) will be taken into consideration for the class final grade. Students, therefore, will be graded on only the best eight (8) test scores.

*Students must take at least 8 of the eleven tests. In the event that more than 8 test will be taken the best 8 test scores will be counted toward the final class grade.

*Tests will be administered through Blackboard and are online. Students can take the test during a 24 hour period. Tests are timed and should be completed in 30 minutes or less from the start time. A penalty is assessed for each extra minute taken to complete the test (see below)

* Students must become familiar with Blackboard and be able to take the test online. It is their responsibility to become familiar with Blackboard.

*It is important that students take all the required eight tests and make arrangements to be available during test days.

*THESE TESTS WILL CONSTITUTE 100 % THE FINAL GRADE.

*Each test consists of twelve (12) multiple-choice questions. These are taken directly from the textbook and the lecture notes but require elaboration and critical thinking. Each test is an open-book and open-note exam. Therefore, students can and should use the textbook and their notes during the test.

*The test is timed. Students have thirty (30) minutes to complete the twelve (12) question test. For each test a total of two hundred and fifty points (250) points will be assigned. Twenty (20) points will be assigned for each question answered correctly with the exception of one question that is worth thirty (30) points. A thirty (30) point penalty will be assessed for each extra minute taken to complete the test.

*Tests will be available on exam day from 12:00 am midnight to 11:59 pm. See schedule below. It is the student's RESPONSIBILITY to learn how to take the test through Blackboard. Tutorial courses are available. On test days, Dr. Bonanno will be available from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm (central time). In case of non-technical problems, e-mail him immediately. In case of technical problems, contact "SHSU Online Support" immediately at 936.294.2780, or blackboard@shsu.edu . Dr. Bonanno will not be available outside business hours.

Extra Credit Projects

Summaries

Forty (40) extra credit points are available to students who complete a 1,000-word summary of each of the assigned chapters. A total of 200 extra credit points is available. Students, therefore, can receive credit for only Five (5) chapter summaries during the course of the semester. Additional chapter summaries will be reviewed but no extra credit points will be assigned. Extra credit points will be added to the student grade at the end of the semester and will complement the points obtained through the regularly scheduled tests. Summaries should be submitted through Blackboard

Grades: A total of 2000 possible points will be available (without extra credit points). Grades will be assigned according to the following chart:
