Course Descriptions and Objectives:

The three-semester sequence of Class Piano (MUSI 1181, 1182, 2181) presents basic keyboard skills and concepts to music majors designed to prepare students for the Piano Proficiency Examination which is administered during the enrollment of Class Piano Level 3 (MUSI 2181). The exam will include the following:

- All major/minor scales with chord progressions
- Sight-reading a hymn
- Clef reading
- Harmonization/Improvisations
- Ensemble playing/Accompanying
- Transposition
- Solo pieces from the textbook

Prerequisites and Co-enrollment:

MUSI 2181: Grade of C or better in MUS 1182.

Students may be allowed to enroll in any level of Class Piano with the consent of the Coordinator of Class Piano. Consent will be granted based on the student's demonstration of

Students enrolled in	should also be enrolled in:

It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor if the student is not enrolled in the appropriate Theory and/or Musicianship course, as the skills and knowledge of the three courses are interrelated.

Assignments:

Assignments will be given at each class meeting. Most assignments will involve a demonstration at the keyboard, and some of them will require elementary composition on a staff paper. The instructor will carefully explain what is expected each class. If a student is unclear about an assignment, it is the responsibility of the student to seek clarification by e-mail in advance.

Practice Expectations:

Pianos are located on the 1st floor of the School of Music. It is expected that students practice a minimum of 30 minutes a day in preparation for class – not 3 1/2 hours in one day! If you are struggling or do not understand the assignments, you should schedule an appointment with the instructor for extra tutoring in advance.

Midterm & Final Examinations:

There will be 2 exams – Midterm exam and Final exam. Both exams will be a performance of materials covered throughout the semester.

Important Dates

- February 1st Thursday – 12th Class Day – last day to drop class
- March 7th Wednesday – Midterm exam
- May 2nd Wednesday – Last day of class
- May 7th Monday – Final exam dates

Make-up Work:

Any assignment missed due to official university business, or a previously approved religious holiday absence, must be made up at the next class meeting. For all other unexcused absences, the student will receive a ZERO for the assignment. NO EXCUSES. If you are sick, you must e-mail me ahead of time, NOT 2 minutes before class or after the class is over! You are required to present appropriate doctor's note, be responsible for missed assignments, and be prepared to make-up the work the following class. Midterm and final exams may not be made up.

Grading Policies:

Assignment grades are given EACH CLASS based on a 0-100 scale. There will also be 2 quizzes throughout the semester. Each quiz is worth 6 assignment grades.

The final grade will be calculated as follows:

Class assignments through midterm	25%
Class assignments after midterm	25%
Midterm exam	25%
Final exam	25%

100-90	A
89-80	B
79-70	C
69-60	D (recommend retaking the course)
59-0	F (no credit given; must retake the course)

Attendance:

University policy requires that students be allowed three (3) unexcused absences without penalty. An unexcused absence is when the student does not notify the instructor in advance. Attendance will be taken at every class meeting. After three unexcused absences, the student's grade will be lowered one FULL LETTER GRADE for each additional absence.
