Course Format:

This is an online class. All class materials can be found on Blackboard.

Course Content:

Major concepts: Research methodology for original empirical research, school library needs assessment, and grant seeking in the school library setting.

Specific topics:

- Overview of research methodologies and design
- Focus on and application of interview and survey methodologies
- School library needs assessment
- Grant-seeking: identification of potential grantors through published listings
- Grant-proposal writing

Concept objectives - Students will:

- identify examples of major types of evidence-based research as practiced in, or related to the activities of a school or other type of library, and featuring learner diversity (gender, nationality, ethnicity or culture, ability, etc.) ;
- demonstrate an awareness of leading library media center trends as reflected in published evidence-based research in professional journals and monographs;
- evaluate key elements of evidence-based research proposals and reports;
- employ current research findings and conduct evidence-based research as a management tool for program evaluation and improvement, especially in relation to federal and state legislation and standards relevant to library media programs as these relate to funding opportunities;
- identify external sources of funding to support evidence-based research or program improvement;
- practice the steps in the evidence-based research process;
- develop grant proposals aimed at creating or improving library media center programs that complement and enrich learning throughout the school;
- develop an appropriate research or grant proposal.

Course Requirements:

- Students will begin course work by sharing introductions through the Blackboard Discussion Board (DB).
- Learning activities will then move to readings and video lecture that renew familiarity with research methods and standards in the academic world.
- Application of those research methods and academic standards will lead to assessment of the needs of student-identified libraries.
- To address those needs, grant writing and application skills will be examined and practiced.
- Specifics for assessment of course activities are provided in this syllabus on p. 7.

NCATE Accreditation

The Sam Houston State University, College of Education has the distinction of NCATE accreditation since 1954. As an NCATE accredited program, the College of Education ensures that the best-prepared teachers will be in classrooms teaching the next generation of leaders how to solve problems, communicate effectively, and work collaboratively.

In November 2010, NCATE merged with the Teacher Education Accreditation Council (TEAC) to become the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP), combining the two premiere accrediting organizations as a single accrediting agency for reform, innovation, and research in educator preparation. SHSU will continue to be NCATE accredited through its next review scheduled for November 2015.

The Conceptual Framework and Model

The COE Conceptual Framework establishes the shared vision of the college in preparing educators to work with P-12 students through programs dedicated to collaboration in instruction, field experience, and research. T

The candidates in Sam Houston State University's Educator Preparation Programs acquire the knowledge, dispositions, and skills necessary to create a positive learning environment preparing educators to work with P-12 students.

Employing a variety of technologies, candidates learn to plan, implement, assess, and modify instruction to meet the needs of diverse learners.

The Conceptual Framework (CF) incorporates five (5) indicators throughout the framework that serve to identify areas tied to course work where there is evidence of Conceptual Framework and goals assessment. The five indicators are:

- Knowledge Base (CF1),
- Technological Learning Environment (CF2),
- Communication (CF3),
- Assessment (CF4), and
- Effective Field Experience with Diverse Learners (CF5)

College of Education Information:

Please be advised that the College of Education conducts ongoing research regarding the effectiveness of the programs. You will receive one survey in the final semester prior to graduation regarding the operations of the unit during your time here. A second survey will occur within one year following graduation from or completion of a program, and will be sent to you and to your employer. This survey will focus on the preparation received at SHSU. Please remember that your response to these surveys is critical to SHSU program excellence.
