ACE Course Designation:

PRACTICUM – A course of civic engagement. A minimum of sixty hours of practicum is required for these blocked courses. This component is NOT observation. You will be expected to be an active assistant and learner in these classrooms. Your university professor and mentor teachers jointly oversee all practicum experiences. The required school practicum experiences represent a collaborative effort by your host school mentor teachers and university faculty to meet program, state, and national standards as well as school district literacy goals. You will not only learn the knowledge and skills taught through this course, but also actively use them to make a difference at Williams Elementary School. You have been given the opportunity to help improve the learning opportunities of children with whom you work and assist and support your mentor teachers. This experience, it is hoped, will help you see yourself as a positive force in this world and deepen your understanding of your role as a citizen. These experiences listed in the course requirements below constitute about 50% of your course grade and are designated as ACE components: Daily on campus tutoring apart from your case study student, daily reading and writing lessons with your case study student and participation with campus family nights.

Course Requirements:

All assignments (even when submitted online) must include a hard copy of a blank rubric.

1. Writing Projects –

Candidates will complete four writing projects in workshop fashion in this course. Occasionally opportunities will be provided to work on these projects both in and outside of class time. This journal might help you complete your "Dispositions and Diversity Proficiencies" requirement, which might be need to be uploaded to TK20.

3. Discussion Agenda

Candidates will be assigned chapters in the DeVries text to read and will be held accountable for the information in group discussion format. - a. Lesson Plans. Each time you work with the students, you must have two completed lesson plans. One copy is submitted to me for review, and the other needs to be with you to use during your time with your tutorial student. These plans will be checked weekly and assessed for completeness and appropriateness. BE PREPARED. If you do not have a completed lesson plan, you will not be allowed to work with the student. The lack of a lesson plan will be counted as an absence. The lesson plans, along with my notes to you, will be contained in a case study notebook.
- b. Reflective Analysis of Reading and Guided Reading Plans: Students will write a reflection of their experiences with the students during reading and guided reading lessons. Candidates will describe their own learning as well as the students' learning. Reflection will be turned in with all lesson plans. Candidates will do a running record on their child each week. These notes are to be analyzed and included in the final case study.

15. Professionalism Policy.

You are currently in a professional course of study which prepares you to be a responsible teacher and accountable to and for our most precious assets, our children, their parents, your colleagues and administrators. This is not a responsibility to be taken lightly. Your joyful and enthusiastic participation as well as a responsible learning attitude will be exemplary models for our young children. Williams Elementary School is our host school for this course. You are a guest in this school. That means your attitude and behaviors are those of the perfect guest: You look for the good things, you're cheerful and enthusiastic, and you show that you're grateful to be here. In this course, everyone begins the semester with 50 points, the maximum for exemplary professional behavior. Loss of points can be the result of absences, tardies, unfinished or poorly prepared work, poor communication between your colleagues or mentor teachers, negative attitudes, lack of initiative, impatience, rudeness, inappropriate technology use, or other unprofessional behavior. Loss of most or all professionalism points will result in the submission of a note to the College of Education's Professional Concerns Committee and/or a letter grade deduction. Note: Your professor determines the final total of professionalism points.

Attendance.

Regular and punctual attendance is required. This is a "hands-on" course in which many of the instructional techniques are demonstrated in class and are debriefed in large and small group discussions. Attendance also demonstrates a level of responsibility and commitment that future employers like to see. It is not a good idea to miss any class. Four points will be deducted from the "Professionalism" grade for each class absence. Attendance is strictly required for any class period spent working with the students in the school setting. If you must miss a session with your student, you are required to e-mail your mentor teacher AND Dr. Anderson that you will be absent. Candidates will sign into class daily. Failure to sign-in on-time counts as a tardy. Tardies and early departures are noted. Two points will be deducted for each class tardy. Two early departures or tardies will be the equivalent of one class absence. It is never okay to sign-in for others or have others sign-in for you. Doing so will result in a deduction of professionalism points for dishonesty. There are no "excused" absences or tardies. Just absences or tardies.

16. Mentor Teacher Evaluation.

Each candidate will be evaluated by their classroom mentor at the end of the semester. Scores will not be shared with you as their evaluations are anonymous, but you will be given constructive and/or positive notes.

17. Exit Survey.

SHSU candidates are required to complete a short, written exit interview at the end of the semester.

Late assignment policy: Late assignments will have points removed at the following rate: 10 points removed for every calendar day late. Most assignments will be submitted electronically through the course Blackboard. However, if the candidate is to turn in a hard copy of an assignment and chooses instead to e-mail the instructor the assignment, 15 points will be deducted from the final grade of the assignment.

The professor reserves the right to alter course requirements to better meet the learning needs of the preservice teachers.

Time requirement: 60 hours per course classroom time; 45 hours per course fieldwork.

Academic Dishonesty policy:

All students are expected to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of academic work will be subject to disciplinary action. The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work which is to be submitted, plagiarism, collusion and the abuse of resource materials. For a complete listing of the university policy, see: Dean of Student's Office

Cell Phones:

Cell phones need to be turned off or put on vibrate at the beginning of class. Unless specifically requested by the professor, texting during class periods is prohibited. Infractions of the "Cell Phone Policy" may result in a reduction of points from the candidate's "Professionalism" grade.

Section 51.911 (a) (2) defines a religious holy day as: “a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Section 11.20....” A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

University policy 861001 provides the procedures to be followed by the student and instructor. A student desiring to absent himself/herself from a scheduled class in order to observe (a) religious holy day(s) shall present to each instructor involved a written statement concerning the religious holy day(s). STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES POLICY: It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that individuals otherwise qualified shall not be excluded, solely by reason of their disability, from participation in any academic program of the university. Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities that might affect their academic performance are expected to visit with the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities located in the Counseling Center . They should then make arrangements with their individual instructors so that appropriate strategies can be considered and helpful procedures can be developed to ensure that participation and achievement opportunities are not impaired.

SHSU adheres to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. If you have a disability that may affect adversely your work in this class, then I encourage you to register with the SHSU Counseling Center and to talk with me about how I can best help you. All disclosures of disabilities will be kept strictly confidential. NOTE: No accommodation can be made until you register with the Counseling Center. For a complete listing of the university policy, see: <http://www.shsu.edu/dotAsset/7ff819c3-39f3-491d-b688-db5a330ced92.pdf>

In all cases, visitors must not present a disruption to the class by their attendance. Students wishing to audit a class must apply to do so through the Registrar's Office.

Sam Houston Writing Center, located in Farrington 111, is open from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Friday, and 2 - 7 p.m. on Sunday.
