

Daniel J. McGuire

djm045@shsu.edu

Education

MA History, Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, TX (2016)

BA History (with Sociology minor), Sam Houston State University,
Huntsville, TX (2014)

AA, Lone Star Community College, Spring, TX (2012)

Publications

East Texas History “Intercontinental”

East Texas History “Hobby”

Memberships

Phi Alpha Theta: August 2014 - May 2016

Vice President Fall 2015 – Spring 2016

Teaching Experience

Adjunct Professor Sam Houston State University Fall 2016-HIST 1302-US

History 1877 to Present

Adjunct Professor Lonestar College-North Harris Fall 2016 dual credit HIST
1301-US History to 1876 (2)

Guest Lecture for Dr. Brian Jordan: 27 April 2016: Andrew Jackson

Guest Lecture for Dr. Jessica Herzogenrath: 23 March 2016: Aviation through World War II

Guest Lecture for Dr. Frank Thornton: 2 September 2015: The American West 1865-1900

Guest Lecture for Dr. Frank Thornton: 4 November 2015: The Cold War
1945-1961

Teaching Assistant at SHSU: January 2015 – May 2016

Nominated for Teaching Assistant Award Fall 2015 and Spring 2016

13th Annual Teaching and Learning Conference-Sam Houston State
University 2016

12th Annual Teaching and Learning Conference-Sam Houston State
University 2015

Presentations

“Grant’s Colony (Harmony Settlement): Legacy” – 28 April 2016

“Woodlands Center Research Symposium: Skyward Houston: Early Aviation and Airport Building through 1969” – 9 April 2016

Phi Alpha Theta Biennial Convention: “How Not to Build an Airport: A Brief History of Houston Intercontinental Airport” – 6 January 2016