

Name:

Frank Aniol

Title, position:

Livestock Judging Coach

Department of Agricultural Sciences and Engineering Technology
College of Sciences

Degrees Earned:

Associates in Arts of Science, Minor in Business Administrative Blinn College, 2014

Bachelors in Animal Science
Texas A&M University, 2015

Master of Agricultural Sciences
Sam Houston State University
Expected Graduation Date, May 2017

Professional Licensure and Certifications: None

Peer-Review Publications and Artistic Performances/Exhibitions: None

Refereed Abstracts: None

Research Monographs and Technical Reports: None

Funded External Grants: None

Honors and Awards:

Peer-Review Presentations/Posters: None

Work or Professional Experiences:

Worked on a 250 herd ranch, as a ranch manager. Created and Co-founder of FA2 which is a club calve operation in San Antonio, Texas. Assisted with Blinn junior college as well as Texas A&M University as an assistant coach.

Apart of 2 competitive Livestock Judging teams both at Blinn Junior College, and at Texas A&M University. Was a part of cattlemen's social club both at Blinn, and at A&M. A member of saddle and sirloin at Texas A&M. Was ranked in the top 10 at every National Livestock Contest.

Other Competencies:

A member of A.C.T.S which is a catholic organization. A member of ST. Jerome's men's club.