

Chloé Williams

818 Laindon Springs Lane

Spring, Texas 77373

713 297-1394(C)

chloewilliams0816@yahoo.com

Objective: Highly motivated, compassion driven registered nurse with six years hospital and clinical experience. Seeking a nurse educator opportunity to enhance my professional career. Reliable and ethical, with the ability to stay calm and intervene during crisis and collaborate on multidisciplinary teams. Proven ability to build positive relationships with patients, family members, and other medical professionals.

Education: December 2015: Masters of Science in Nursing, Nurse Educator; University of Texas Medical Branch
April 2011: Baccalaureate of Science in Nursing; University of Texas Medical Branch.
January 2011: Grant received from the Nursing Education and Placement Program.

Certifications: BLS (Basic Life Support 2016)
NRP (Neonatal Resuscitation Program (2017)

Accomplishments: March 2012: Donated bone marrow to a patient with Acute Myeloid Leukemia.
October 2012: Conducted ABC-13 KTRK Month to Match Public Service announcement; encouraging individuals to join Bone Marrow Registry.
October 2012: Honoree with Lone Star Circle of Life.
March 2013: Exceptional Nursing Team Member.

Volunteer Work: Frontera de Salud: Provided health care screenings and completed home visits to educate individuals about diabetes and cardiovascular disease, health care volunteer.
The Beacon: Food service volunteer.
Student Ambassador for UTMB.
Student Mentor for UTMB students.

Chloewilliams0816@yahoo.com

Work Experience: August 2017-Current: Lone Star Community College:
Clinical Adjunct Faculty

Teaches a variety of courses in Nursing at a variety of times and locations. Submits timely required reports and forms. Develops and utilizes a course syllabus for each course, following established institutional guidelines. Advises students in academic matters. Evaluates students by a variety of means to measure their progress in achieving course objectives and inform them in a timely manner of their progress. Maintains professional relationships with students, colleagues, and the community.

October 2016-Current: Labor and Delivery RN
Houston Methodist Hospital Dunn 6W

Responsible for direct care of pregnant and/or laboring patients, specifically those with high risk and/or complicated pregnancies. Assessed patient status and communicated clinical changes with physicians. Managed multiple patients at one time. Worked in the operating room during emergency and scheduled C-Sections.

Demonstrate proper management for high risk patients with gestational diabetes, preeclampsia, HELLP syndrome, PIH, and the patient on MgSO₄. Provides ongoing care for the postpartum patient and newborn.

Provides education to pregnant and/or postpartum patients and their families. Work as a team with my fellow labor and delivery staff. Attends to the emotional status of the patients and their families.

April 2015-Current: Telephonic Nursing Support RN
Healthy Connections (Option Care)

Responsible for telephonic case management of high-risk obstetrical patient during the antepartum period. Clients serviced include Gestational Diabetes Mellitus, Pregnancy-Induced Hypertension, Hyperemesis, and 17-P patients.

Receive referrals and process accordingly. Notify pharmacy of possible admissions. Interact with hospital Case Manager as appropriate. Maintain daily census report and dispense to agency personal. Communicate with agency personnel. Coordinates care with respect to telephonic management and interfacing with patient's physician.

June 2016-Oct 2016: Labor and Delivery RN

Houston Northwest Medical Center

Responsible for taking care of a woman before, while, and after her baby is born and responsible for ensuring that her safety and emotional well-being is cared for. Empathetic and compassionate; able to make quick decisions that require critical thinking and demonstrates excellent communication skills.

Experience with the following roles:

Antepartum- care for women who must be hospitalized or triaged due to pregnancy complications.

Labor and delivery- monitoring pregnancies, fetal monitoring, inductions, augmentations, provide physical and emotional support, lactation support, and promoting healthy mother-child bonding after birth.

Circulating nurse- manage patient care during a Cesarean section while in operating room.

April 2015-June 2016 Labor and Delivery RN Houston Methodist Hospital Dunn 6W

Responsible for direct care of pregnant and/or laboring patients, specifically those with high risk and/or complicated pregnancies.	Assessed patient status and communicated clinical changes with physicians. Managed multiple patients at one time.
Worked in the operating room during emergency and scheduled C-Sections.

Demonstrate proper management for high risk patients with gestational diabetes, preeclampsia, HELLP syndrome, PIH, and the patient on MgSO4. Provides ongoing care for the postpartum patient and newborn.

Provides education to pregnant and/or postpartum patients and their families. Work as a team with my fellow labor and delivery staff. Attends to the emotional status of the patients and their families.

2014-2015 Methodist J.C. Walter Jr. Dunn 4W/10E Solid Organ Transplant Unit

Provides direct patient care effectively and efficiently to a patient team which include: heart, lung, kidney, pancreas, liver, and living donor patients. Inserts central venous catheters, draws blood from venous lines, uses special feeding tubes (gastronomy, jejunostomy, nasogastric), monitor chest tube output, assessment and intervention for patients with wound ulcers, and responsible for assessment of patients with telemetry monitoring. Assumes leadership roles with progressive responsibility including but not limited to participating in or leading in unit and shared governance initiatives and contributes to hospital wide initiatives. Challenged to utilize critical thinking and assessment skills for these higher acuity patients. Accountable for all aspects of patient care and is assisted by the patient care assistant and unit secretary. Direct patient care is utilized by providing an interdisciplinary approach.

2013-2014 Methodist J.C. Walter Jr. Transplant Center
Transplant Clinical Communication Coordinator (Call Center)

2012-2013 University of Texas MD Anderson
Stem Cell Transplant and Cell Therapy Clinical Nurse

2011-2012 St. Joseph Medical Center
Maternal-Child Registered Nurse

2011-2011 West Houston Medical Center
Maternal-Child Registered Nurse