

Kristin R. Henze
Curriculum Vitae
(Updated July 2018)

Contact Information:

Home

8807 Alicia Drive
Tomball, TX 77375
832.797.4341
kristinhenze@gmail.com (primary email)

Work

1921 Avenue J, AB4 Suite 441
Huntsville, TX 77340
936.294.1475
krh066@shsu.edu

Current Position:

Pool Faculty, Department of History, Sam Houston State University
Adjunct Instructor, Department of History, Lone Star College, Cy-Fair

Educational Background:

- Ph.D. University of Missouri, 2017
Fields: 20th Century African-American; 20th Century U.S., Pre-20th Century American South; Modern British History; Sub-Saharan Africa
Adviser: Dr. Carol Anderson; Committee Members: Dr. Robert Collins, Dr. Mark Carroll, Dr. Theodore Koditschek, Dr. David L. Brunsma
Reading Languages: Spanish; French
- M.A. Texas Tech University, 2007
Major Field: U.S. History; Minor Field: Political Science
Thesis: Representations and Memories of E.D. Nixon, Martin Luther King Jr., and the Montgomery Bus Boycott
Adviser: Dr. M. Catherine Miller; Committee Member: Dr. Justin Hart
- B.A. Texas Tech University, 2003
Double Major: History & Political Science

Awards, Prizes, Grants and Fellowships:

- W.B. and Mozelle Rushing History Scholarship (Texas Tech University Department of History, April 2007)
- James S. Rollins Slavery Atonement Endowment for Black Studies (University of Missouri-Columbia, July 2010)
- Department of History Dissertation Fellowship (University of Missouri-Columbia, September 2012)

Professional Experience:

- Member of Organization of American Historians (OAH) (2007-present)
- Member of Association of the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH) (2007-present)
- Treasurer of Phi Alpha Theta, Texas Tech Chapter (Fall 2005-Spring 2006)

Honor Societies:

- Phi Alpha Theta (History), inducted Spring 2004

Conferences:

Hispanics in the Southwest: "Immigration, Education, Health, and Public Policy Conference," April 26-28, 2007, Texas Tech University. Monitor for Problems Faced by Immigrant Students in U.S. Schools, by Dr. Christian Faltis, Arizona State University.

University of Missouri Black Studies Program: "The 40th Anniversary of Black Studies in the United States: Histories, Presents, and Futures," October 26-27, 2008, University of Missouri-Columbia. Mississippi Mau Mau: Medgar Evers and the Black Freedom Struggle, 1952-1963, Panel: Research in Progress.

Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations: Annual Conference, June 24-26, 2010, University of Wisconsin-Madison. Mississippi Mau Mau: Medgar Evers and the Black Freedom Struggle, 1952-1963, Panel: Black Internationalism and Cold War Dissent.

Association for the Study of African American Life and History: Annual Conference, October 2-6, 2013, Jacksonville, Florida. Mississippi Mau Mau: Medgar Evers and the Black Freedom Struggle, 1952-1963, Panel: Mississippi, The Black Freedom Movement, and Trauma.

National Council for Black Studies: Annual Conference: March 8-12, 2017, Houston, Texas. Dismantling the Segregation Monolith: Medgar Evers and the Black Freedom Movement in Jackson, Mississippi, 1952-1964, Panel: Beyond Segregation: Race, Color, Class, and Separation in Transnational Space.

Previous Positions:

- 70% Instructor for U.S. History at Lone Star College, Cy-Fair (Fall 2015-Spring 2016)
- Adjunct Instructor for U.S. History at Moberly Area Community College (Fall 2013-Summer 2014)
- Graduate Teaching Assistant/Instructor for U.S. History at the University of Missouri-Columbia (Fall 2007-Spring 2013)
- Grader for Pre-20th Century American History at Texas Tech University (Summer I 2005)
- Graduate Teaching Assistant for U.S. History at Texas Tech University (Spring 2004-Spring 2005)

2007)

-Manuscript Editor for Dr. W. David Hall, Centre College (Summer 2004)

Teaching and Research Interests:

- 20th Century African-American History
- U.S. History
- Africa
- Empire, Imperialism, and Colonization
- Race Relations

Career Goals:

- Publish and research in the fields of 20th Century African-American history, U.S. history, and Africa.
- Develop courses implementing theoretical concepts such as race, freedom strategies, and empire.

Community Involvement/Awards:

Alpha Phi Omega (2002-present)

- Involved as a student member, officer, and organizational advisor at Texas Tech University, coordinating and participating in student-led service projects and leadership training both on and off campus.

References:

Dr. Carol Anderson
Associate Professor of History
Emory University
Ph.D. Adviser and Committee Chair
Phone: 404.727.6847
Email: carol.anderson@emory.edu
Mail: 550 Asbury Circle
207 Candler Library
Atlanta, GA 30322

Dr. Robert Collins
Professor of History
University of Missouri
Ph.D. Committee Member
Phone: 573.882.9460
Email: collinsr@missouri.edu
Mail: University of Missouri
101 Read Hall
Columbia, MO 65211-7500

Dr. Steven Watts
Professor of History
University of Missouri-Columbia
Former Supervising Professor
Phone: 573.882.7866
Email: watts@missouri.edu
Mail: University of Missouri
101 Read Hall
Columbia, MO 65211-7500