program outcomes in severely mentally ill offenders?

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Fall 2017 – Present Therapist. Psychological Services Center, Huntsville, TX. Served as a primary therapist at a community mental health center under the supervision of a doctoral-level mental health professional.

2014 – 2016 Forensic Case Manager. Queens TASC Mental Health Diversion Program, Queens, NY. Conducted assessment interviews with potential clients, wrote psychosocial evaluations and progress notes, and made collateral phone calls. Managed a caseload of offenders by making program referrals, supervising urine toxicology screenings, conducting face-to-face meetings, communicating with Rikers Island staff, and preparing HRA 2010e forms. Reported on client progress in treatment to the Queens County Criminal and Supreme Courts' mental health recovery court parts. Conducted Cognitive Behavioral Therapy journaling with mental health clients.

2013 – 2014 Mental Health Intern. Queens TASC Mental Health Diversion Program, Queens, NY. Assisted forensic case managers with tasks such as conducting assessment interviews with potential clients, writing psychosocial evaluations and client progress notes, making collateral phone calls and implementing Cognitive Behavioral Therapy journaling with mental health clients.

2012 – 2013 Psychiatry Volunteer. Beth Israel Medical Center, Manhattan, NY. Participated as a member of a multidisciplinary team on three inpatient psychiatric units under Dr. Igor Galynker on weekly rounds.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Fall 2017 Instructor. Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, TX. Taught an online section of PSYC 3331 (Abnormal Psychology) to approximately 30 Sam Houston State University undergraduate students.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

2016 – Present Research Assistant. Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, TX. Conducted research under the direction of faculty mentors Dr. Craig Henderson and Dr. Jaime Anderson.

2013 – 2016 Independent Research. Queens TASC Mental Health Diversion Program, Queens, NY. Principal investigator for a longitudinal study, “The Role of Controlled Substance Use in Diversion Outcomes Among Mentally Ill Offenders” under the direction of Dr. Barry Rosenfeld, Fordham University.

2012 – 2015 Research Assistant. Beth Israel Medical Center, Manhattan, NY. Conducted literature review, co-authored, and edited “Bipolar Disorder and Sexuality: A Review.”

2012 – 2013 Research Assistant. Beth Israel Medical Center, Manhattan, NY. Recruited participants, obtained informed consent, conducted structured assessment interviews with psychiatric inpatients, entered and cleaned data for “Predicting Emotional Regulation: Internal Consistency and Predictive Validity of Emotional Regulation Scale” under Dr. Igor Galynker, Beth Israel Medical Center.

2011 – 2013 Research Assistant. Fordham University, Bronx, NY. Designed and ran a year-long learning experiment, “Generalizing Letter Discrimination to Different Font Styles”, studying the learning of discrimination and equivalence relations in pigeons. Collected and reviewed data. Ran experiments for other students and Dr. James MacDonall using both pigeons and rats.

2011 Research Assistant. University of Scranton, Scranton, PA. Collected and entered study data for a study directed by Dr. J. Timothy Cannon examining androgen markers in the hands and face and the relations of these markers to cognitive functioning.
