Spring 2024 Trainings & Presentations

All Sessions on Zoom - Register in Talent Management!

Anthology Planning Software Training

Do you have a new team member who will need access and/or training for Anthology Planning? Whether you are new to Anthology Planning or need a refresher, we can demonstrate its uses and answer your questions.

- Tuesday, February 13, 10:00 am - 11:00 am
- Wednesday, March 20, 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm
- Thursday, April 18, 10:00 am - 11:00 am

Additional Zoom and in-person sessions are available by request.

Curriculum Mapping Overview

The Office of Assessment will host a session to discuss the benefits of curriculum mapping, provide examples of curriculum maps and emphasis levels, and explain how assessment is a cornerstone of the process. This presentation is best suited for academic programs (degrees, minors, and certificates) and any other units that have learning objectives in their assessment plans, but all faculty and staff are welcome to attend.

- Wednesday, February 21, 10:00 am - 11:00 am

Assessment Mini-Grant Information Sessions

The Office of Assessment staff will discuss Assessment Mini-Grant eligibility and requirements, share examples of previously approved grant projects, and discuss dos and don'ts for creating a successful grant application.

- Tuesday, March 26, 10:00 am - 11:00 am
- Wednesday, April 24, 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Assessment Planning Series: Wrapping Up the Assessment Cycle

This session is for all faculty and staff involved in assessment planning for academic programs (degrees, minors, certificates) and support units (academic, student, administrative). Access to Anthology Planning is not required to attend.

- Tuesday, April 9, 10:00 am - 11:00 am

This session will be repeated in June.

Contact The Assessment Team if you have any questions.
