PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Postsecondary Experience

05/2014-Present

Director – Academic Success Center-The Woodlands Center (ASC@TWC), Sam Houston State University, The Woodlands, TX

As the Director of the Academic Success Center (ASC@TWC) my responsibilities include programs and services, human and physical resources, tutor training, and program assessment and evaluation. The ASC@TWC serves students, faculty, and staff at SHSU – The Woodlands Center and individuals within the surrounding communities. The ASC tutors provide individual and small group instruction in reading, writing (APA, MLA, and Chicago), and statistics. Reading tutoring sessions were minimal for both years because The Woodlands Center serves junior and senior undergraduate students, master’s level students, and doctoral candidates. Writing tutoring sessions for the 2014-2015 school year totaled approximately 625. For 2015-2016 writing tutoring sessions increased to approximately 1200. Statistics tutoring session numbers were not collected because all statistics sessions were walk-in, and multiple sessions were occurring simultaneously.

Tutors visit classes to discuss ASC@TWC services and to present specific reading and writing strategies. Other services provided by the ASC@TWC are Texas teacher certification test review sessions and test prep for verbal sections for the GRE, GMAT, and TEAS (nursing school entrance exam). Texas teacher certification pass rates continue to be 95%. Partnering with Conroe ISD to develop a writing center at Oak Ridge High School.

Courses Taught:

READ 4215 – Multidisciplinary Literacies (best-practices for using nonfiction in the classroom), 2015-2018

INRW 0014 – Integrated Reading and Writing, 2017

08/2003-05/2014

Director – Reading Center and the Developmental Reading Program, Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, TX

As Director of the Reading Center I had responsibilities in two areas—The Reading Center and the Developmental Reading Program. Reading Center responsibilities included programs and services, budget, human and physical resources, tutor training, and program assessment and evaluation.

The Reading Center served the entire SHSU community; helping all students with textbook reading and study strategies, tutoring and mentoring developmental reading students, tutoring international students, assisting students who had specific reading disabilities, presenting textbook reading strategies in classrooms, reviewing the GRE and GMAT with potential graduate students; and holding Texas teacher certification review sessions for SHSU teacher candidates. In summer sessions when enrollment was low, I volunteered to help at-risk junior high students who were in need of reading strategies and motivation.

In 2013-14 school year, over 6500 student visits were made to the Reading Center. At the request of professors and instructors, textbook reading strategies were presented to over 3300 students in 101 classrooms across several academic disciplines.

Developmental Reading Program responsibilities included program alignment with the Texas Success Initiative (TSI), curriculum development, adjunct instructor training, student instruction, student assessment and evaluation, and program assessment and evaluation. Also, advising and mentoring a diverse group of developmental education students, including international students, to help them make wise decisions about future academic endeavors is a priority for me.

Initiated teacher certification review sessions in 2006 to help pre-service and professional teachers prepare for their Texas teacher certification exams. Held review sessions for the following exams: (a) EC-6 Generalist, (b) 4-8 English Language Arts Reading (ELAR), (c) 4-8 ELAR/Social Studies, (d) 7-12 ELAR, (e) 7-12 Social Studies, (f) EC-12 Special Education, (g) EC-12 English as a Second Language Supplement, (h) EC-12 Bilingual Supplement, (i) EC-12 Pedagogy and Professional Responsibility. The overall pass rate from 2006-2018 for students who attended review sessions was 97%.

Courses taught: READ 0301/RDG 031 – Developmental Reading; RDG 011 – Developmental Reading 2; RDG 131 – Critical Reading and Thinking Strategies; RDG 235 – Multicultural Literacy; RDG 285 – Writing Workshop; RDG 587 – Content Area Reading; EED 233 – Becoming a Teacher; and UNIV 1301/SAM 136 – Introductions to Collegiate Studies; All courses taught using Blackboard as teaching platform.

08/2007-05/2015

Adjunct Instructor, Department of Urban Education, University of Houston Downtown,
Houston Texas

Course Taught: READ 3305 – Foundations of Literacy (children's and young adult literature class); READ 3306 – Language and Literacy; READ 3307 – Language Arts Instruction; All courses are hybrid courses using Blackboard as teaching platform

08/1993-08/1994,

Master-Teacher-in-Residence in the Department of Language, Literacy, and Special Populations (one-year contract), Sam Houston State University,
Huntsville, TX

Courses Taught: RDG 431 – Literacy Assessment; RDG 370 – Foundations of Reading; and RDG 390 – Language Arts Instruction/RDG 431 – Literacy Assessment (Taught Initial Reading Block (Literacy Methods Block) at Huntsville Elementary School with Dr. Leslie Patterson)
