Welcome, Alumni and Friends

Whether you're a Sam Houston State University alumni or an admirer, you understand the value of an SHSU education— an education marked by academic excellence and exceptional teaching.

For more than 135 years, we have been preparing students to lead successful lives. Our motto, "The Measure of a Life is its Service", follows our graduates out into the world.

Our students come from all over the country—and all over the globe, with a drive to achieve. You can help SHSU continue to impact their lives, and those of future students. Be part of this commitment to service.
