

Reporting Requirements 2017

FPP A.036

Except where otherwise specifically stated on this website, all references to “agency” or “agencies” refer to any agency, university or component unit that has an “agency number.” The state of Texas fiscal year begins Sept. 1 of the calendar year and runs through Aug. 31 of the following calendar year.

Latest Updates

The following table displays all content changes to this website made after the June 23, 2017, publication date. Updates critical to the reporting requirements (policies/procedures) are indicated with highlighted rows.

Changes to this website
09/01/2017	Added the CURO web application instructions and made the CURO web application available in the AFR Web Applications table. Added all the webinar video segments with closed captioning and the Q&As to the AFR Training Page .
06/28/2017	Added the training materials (PDFs) for the Morning (Part 1) and the Afternoon (Part 2) AFR Update Webinars.

Fiscal 16 Reporting Period

Changes for the 2016 Reporting Period

2016 Updates Table

Fiscal 15 Reporting Period

Changes for the 2015 Reporting Period

2015 Updates Table

Fiscal 14 Reporting Period

Changes for the 2014 Reporting Period

2014 Updates Table

Fiscal 13 Reporting Period

Changes for the 2013 Reporting Period

2013 Updates Table

Fiscal 12 Reporting Period

Changes for the 2012 Reporting Period

2012 Updates Table

Fiscal 11 Reporting Period

Changes for the 2011 Reporting Period

2011 Updates Table