

IDEA Evaluations

Sam Houston State University uses the IDEA Center's Student Ratings of Instruction instrument (commonly referred to as the IDEA evaluations) to collect feedback from students on their perceived learning within courses and their observations on teaching methods. By collecting feedback on student learning and teaching methods, faculty and administrators are able to make improvements to courses that lead to improved student learning. The Office of Academic Planning and Assessment at Sam Houston State University coordinates the institution's IDEA Evaluation process.

Faculty Resources and Training

- Student Ratings of Instruction (an overview)
- Best Practices for Online Response Rates
- Classroom Administration Procedures for Online IDEA
- Selecting IDEA Objectives
  - Selecting IDEA Learning Objectives (article)
  - Some Thoughts on Selecting IDEA Objectives (article)
  - How to Select IDEA Learning Objectives (1 min. Instructional Video)
- PACE Center Workshops (Interpreting Your Results)
- Frequently Asked Questions
- Faculty Demonstration of Campus Labs' IDEA Online

Accessing Your Evaluations:

- Faculty Portal: <https://shsu.campuslabs.com/faculty/>
- Administrator Portal: <https://shsu.campuslabs.com/Ce/>
- Student Portal: <https://shsu.campuslabs.com/courseeval/>

Academic Planning and Assessment

Home

About Us

Accreditation ▾

Assessment ▾

Catalog ▾

Curriculum ▾

IDEA Evaluations